ADVENTIST CHURCH

Rufus B. McDaniel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson No. 13 for March 27, 1971
Subject: Doing Good To All Men
Keytext Scripture: "That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute willing to communicate; laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life." I Tim. 6:18-19.

A true Christian will manifest brotherly love and charity toward all mankind. His love and respect for his fellowmen will be shown in all his dealings with them. He will so relate himself to his neighbors that they will be attracted to the gospel he professes to believe. One of the tests of true Christianity is how the believer relates himself to the needs of the world. Obedience to correct doctrine will produce a friendly, loving, helpful people. The life and work of the true Christian is but a reflection of Christ as He related Himself to the needs of mankind.

Lesson Outline. I. The Source of Good Works. Jos. 1:17. 2. A Good Heart Does Good Works. Luke 6:45. 3. Love and Mercy Micah 6:8. 4. An Acceptable Service. Isa. 58:6, 7, 10. 5 The Essential Ingredient, Mark 10: 21. 6. Rewards of Service, Matt. 25:34. "God is the source of life and light and joy to the universe – Like rays of light from the sun. Like the streams of water bursting from the living spring blessings flow out from Him to all His creatures. And wherever the light of God is the hearts of men, it will flow out to others in love and blessings." Steps to Christ, p. 77.

Pastor Attends Convention

Rufus B. McDaniel, Pastor of the Appomattox Seventh-day Adventist Church left Sunday, March 21 for Atlantic City, N. J., where he attended the 19th Quadrennial Convention of the Columbia Union Conference of Adventists. He was joined by more than 700 delegates and visitors representing churches in seven eastern states and the District of Columbia for the four-day parley.

One of the main items of business was the election of officers for the coming year quadrennial period ending in 1975.

A complete report of the proceedings of the convention will be given to the local churches on Saturday morning, March 27.

Revival

Revival services will be in progress at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, Buckingham County from March 24-27. Services begin each night at 7 p.m.

Rev. D. H. Justus, Pastor of the church, will deliver the messages. There will be special singing.

Members are expected to attend and the public is cordially invited.

Vacation Bible School Clinic To Be Held

A Vacation Bible School Clinic for Baptist churches in the surrounding area will be held at Liberty Baptist Church Thursday evening, April 1st. The Clinic will seek to train Vacation Bible School workers in the techniques of conducting schools and also will introduce them to new materials available.

The sessions will be held from 7 until 9 p.m. that evening and various classes for various age groups will be taught by Mr. Charles Barber, Mrs. Elton McDowell, Mrs. William D. O'Brien, Mrs. Margaret Thompson and Mrs. Harry Foster.

PASTOR SPEAKS ON BRAZIL

The Rev. Wilson Dowling, pastor of New Concord Presbyterian Church, was the speaker Sunday evening at Walker's Presbyterian Church, Hixburg.

His address and slide presentation was on the subject of Brazil and his four years of mission work there. A covered dish dinner preceded Mr. Dowling's address. He was accompanied by Mrs. Dowling, his son, Ben, and daughter, Helen.

The Rev. M. G. Stimpson is pastor at Walker's.

SOUTH PACIFIC MISSION WORK IS GROWING

Much has been said about the world's population explosion in recent times. The mission fields of South Pacific are undergoing a different kind of explosion. Our baptisms are growing in frequency and numbers. For every soul won in Australia and New Zealand during the past ten years, we have been won in the nearby islands designated as Australasia's Mission Territory. In the great island of New Guinea alone, more than 2,000 were baptized last year.

Our educational work is spiraling in the islands. Thousands of young people, seeking as never before their need of education, are pleading with our educators to admit them to our classrooms. Our space is too small, and facilities too limited, to care for all who clamor for a Christian education. In an endeavor to increase the effectiveness of the mission program, the educational work must be given greater emphasis since it has been found that this program has been responsible for the greater percentage of baptisms over the years.

Offerings will be given for this great cause in the Appomattox, Va., Seventh-day Adventist Church and our church-es all around the world will response to the Saviour's Great Command. Go ye, therefore, into all the world and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son and the Holy Ghost, Teaching them to observe all things what-soever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen. Matt. 28:19-20.

Remind Men of Prayer Breakfast

Bernard C. Richardson and Thomas M. Richardson wish to remind the men of the county of the prayer breakfast they are sponsoring at Maude's Restaurant each Saturday morning in March at 6 a.m. Men are invited to drop by on their way to work for a short worship service, Bible reading and prayer, and at the same time partake fast or have a cup of coffee and a doughnut. On Sat., March 27, the group will decide whether to continue with the 6 a.m. meeting or whether to change to an after-supper service in some one's home or elsewhere. If you are interested in a morning or evening service of worship, in addition to the regular worship services on Sundays and Wednesdays at four o'clock, you are cordially invited to drop by Maude's Restaurant around 6 a.m. this coming Saturday morning.

TB ASSOC SEEKS MORE DOCTORS

The shortage of doctors in Virginia has prompted the Central Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association to seek support of a special program to provide an increased number of resident physicians training in internal medicine at the University of Virginia Hospital in Charlottesville. Area citizens are being asked to contribute funds to the program so that Universities of young doctors to study the treatment of tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases. The money will be used to provide two fellowships in internal medicine at the University of Virginia Hospital and to provide special training in the treatment of tuberculosis for these physicians at the Blue Ridge Sanatorium.

According to Mr. Robert B. Quick, president of the Central Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, contributions may be sent to the Central Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, contributions may be sent to the Central Virginia Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, P. A hot water faucet leaking one drop a second wastes 192 gallons a month down the drain.

Budgeting is hard these days, with your cost of living 5.6% higher than last year. (We know. Our coal costs alone rose 43% over the same period!) And whether the energy that heats your water is flameless electricity, gas or oil, it costs money. So repair leaky hot water faucets immediately, and save yourself a soaking. And check these four other water heater money-saving hints.

1 The shorter the distance the water has to travel from the tank, the less energy you have to pay for. So locate your water heater as close as possible to the point of greatest use: kitchen, laundry or bath.

2 Don't waste money getting the water hotter than you need it. For most homes 140 - 150 is sufficient, or, if you have an automatic dishwasher, 160°. If the thermostat setting on your water heater is higher than that, reduce it and save.

3 Try to wash a full load each time you use your washing machine or dishwasher. This will save money on these appliances as well as on your water heater.

4 Whenever it's feasible, use cold or warm water instead of hot to launder clothes in your automatic washer.

Even though your average cost per kilowatt-hour of electricity is 27% lower than it was in 1950, you're probably using four times as much, making that bill higher too. To help, Vepco's Home Economists offer these simple hints. Follow them and you'll save money.

With everything costing more these days, electricity is about the only bargain left.
